

A few words about our service...

Providing Insight, Control & Advantage

Our work with local authorities

Over the years our clients have said some complimentary things about our service, our staff and our general approach.

Last year we recovered literally millions of pounds for local authority organisations.

Below are a few comments from our clients.

"You make it hard for us to use other companies!"

"I can confirm that I have contacted the referees you supplied, all of which gave you a glowing reference."

In answer to the question 'where is the catch?' One client replied, "There isn't one."

"You have treated us well."

"Your people really are helpful, they don't just give us information, they provide it in a helpful way."

"The Project Review Report added real value to our process improvement plans."

"You found things we would not even have thought to look for."

Our aim is to always maintain positive relationships with your suppliers.

The following is a recent comment from a supplier;

"Many thanks for your patience and assistance in this matter, I hope we can continue to enjoy a successful relationship going forwards."

Our objective is very simple, we do exactly what we say we will, in a professional and friendly way.
